The Speaker laid before the House a Report from the Treasurer, and Auditor, to whom the Books of John Stevens, Esquire, late Treasurer, were referred, by an Order of the Honourable House of Assembly of the 29th of May last, which Report is as follows :

THAT they have examined said Books, and compared them with such Copies as were delivered to them, and find that the Day-Books contain Entries of Monies received and paid at different Periods, from the Time the said Stevens came into Office to the Time of his leaving the same, they therefore suppose them to contain all the publick Entries made by him as Treasurer, but many of those Entries appear to have been made since the Dates under which they are placed, and some of them altered by Interlineations with different Ink, &c.

That the Books produced as Copies do not contain an Account of Payments made by him after November 1780, and are so very erroneous, particularly where they respect Monies received by him, that they cannot be called Copies, and are consequently of no Use to the State.

There are no original Ledgers produced, and those offered as Copies can be of no Service in the Settlement without the Originals to compare them with, as they do materially disagree in many Instances with the Day-Books, large Sums being entered as received in the Day-Books which are not credited in the Copies of said Ledgers.

They beg Leave further to report, that they have particularly examined the Accounts between the said Stevens and William Abbott, formerly Collector of Hunterdon County, and compared the Receipts given to said Abbott with the Entries in said Day-Books, but for Want of his original Ledgers they cannot determine whether the Order drawn on said Abbott, in Favour of Azariah Dunham, has been credited or not; but if the said Order has been credited, they find that the said Collector has Receipts nearly to that Amount which have not been credited in the said Stevens's Settlements with the Legislature, although the greater Part are entered in his Day-Books.

They have also examined the Accounts between said Stevens and Lucas Schenck, and Jonathan Combs, late Collector of Middlesex County, and find the same Difficulty for Want of the original Ledgers, they having Receipts for considerable Sums which are not entered in any of his Books nearly to the Amount of the Order drawn on Lucas Schenck in Favour of Azariah Dunham.

They are therefore clearly of Opinion, that the original Books now in the Hands of the Treasurer ought to be retained by the State, and the Copies returned to Mr. Stevens; and that he be required to produce his original Ledgers, that they may be compared with those offered as Copies. The Plea made by Mr. Stevens and his Counsel before the Honourable House of Assembly in November last, ' That he having intermixed his private Accounts in the Books with the Publick, he could not give them up without great Damage to his private Affairs,' is wholly without Foundation, as we have not found a single Entry made in the Books submitted to our Inspection of a private Nature.

All which is humbly submitted by

Thursday, May 16, 1793.

The House met.

The Speaker laid before the House a Letter from His Excellency William Pateron, Esq. in the Words following :

New Brunswick, 30th March, 1793.

GENTLEMEN of the GENERAL ASSEMBLY,

MY Acceptance of the Office of an Associate Justice in the Supreme Court of the United States, renders it improper that I should continue in my present Station. I have accordingly this Day delivered the Great Seal to the Honourable Elijah Lawrence, the Vice-President, and To-morrow I shall go out of the State; so that he may proceed to discharge his official Functions without any Obstacle or Difficulty.—I now formally announce my Resignation of the Government; and in doing this my last Act, I feel inexpressible Sensibility, mingled with the liveliest Emotions of Gratitude and Respect for the Citizens of this peaceful and happy Land. Farewell, Gentlemen; and may the God of Heaven keep you in his holy Protection, smile upon your Endeavours to promote the Interests of this State, and the Prosperity of the Union at Large.

During the Recs I granted Commissions to all the Officers of the volunteer Corps of Horse, Grenadiers and Light-Infantry, agreeably to the Dates of their respective Certificates. Commissions for the Officers of Artillery have not been issued; and therefore it is necessary to explain this Part of the Business. The Act passed at the last Session of the Legislature declares, that no more than eight Companies of Artillery shall be formed in the State; whereas Certificates of fourteen Companies have been already transmitted, and I have Ground to expect two or three more in Counties from which no Returns have yet been received. If the eight Companies that were first formed, shall be entitled to Establishment, still this Priority cannot be ascertained until all the Certificates shall come to Hand. Besides, upon considering the Act of Congress, it appeared to be their Intention, that the Artillery should be taken from, or, at least, apportioned among the different Brigades; and, therefore, that Regard must be had to their local Situation. The Nature of the Thing seems to point out the Propriety of the Measure, and to indicate, that they should be either formed from the Brigade, or so situated as to be conveniently attached to it. These Reasons induced to a Postponement of the Business for your Consideration and Decision.

Richard Cox, Esq. the Commissioner appointed for the County of Burlington, declined to serve; but of this he did not give me any Notice till the 19th of January; and as the 20th of the same Month was the Time limited for enrolling such of the Militia as did not elect to enter into volunteer Corps, the Duties enjoined could not of Course be performed without an Enlargement of Time. The Urgency of the Occasion left no Room to hesitate, as to the Line of Conduct necessary to be pursued. I accordingly appointed Joseph Elsmere, Esq. Commissioner in the Stead of Mr. Cox; and and directed, that the Duties and Things prescribed to be done by the 2d of January, should be done by the 10th of March; and those prescribed to be done by the 20th of January, should be done by the 20th of April; and that, with this Extension of Time, the Act should, in every Respect, be observed and carried into Effect. I hope that Mr. Bloomfield will be able to perform the Services designated by the Act; and if he should, it will be necessary, on Account of the Duration as to Time, to adopt and ratify his Proceedings.

The Revision of the Laws, which I was authorized to make, is an Object of great Expectation, Utility and Importance. The Avocations of the Office to which I have been recently appointed, will, no doubt, interfere with and retard the Progression of this Work; and therefore it will be most adviseable to substitute some other Person in my Stead. Whoever may conduct this Business, it is necessary that the Legislature should speedily decide upon an interesting Point, which will arise in the Exercise of revisionary Power. I allude to the Code of criminal Law. The Act authorizes the Reviser to select and arrange all the Statutes of England or Great Britain, which, before the Revolution, were practised, or, by the Constitution, extend to this State. The System of penal Jurisprudence, which prevails in Great Britain, is complicated and sanguinary in a high Degree. It is written in Blood, and cannot be read without Horror. The Penalty in many Cases rises far above the Offence; whereas Justice, as well as Policy, requires, that the former should be proportioned to the latter. A full Conviction of the Impolicy, Inadequacy and Cruelty of the existing System of penal Law, and of the Necessity of a thorough Reform, have constrained me to make the foregoing Remarks. If the Legislature concur in Sentiment, it will be easy by a supplemental Act to enlarge the Powers of the Reviser, so as to embrace the Object in View.

I have paid the third Instalment for one hundred Shares, subscribed on the Part of the State, in the Stock of the " Society for establishing useful Manufactures."

WILLIAM PATERSON.
